

FSHN Report – June, 2007

Since our last meeting in March, the students, faculty and staff from FSHN have been quite busy. The end of the semester was quite successful. Five FSHN students were awarded Bronze Tablet honors: Melissa Christine Bosslet (dietetics), Susan Lynne Chisholm (hospitality management), Erin Samantha Hendricks (human nutrition), Nicole M. Kapelinski (hospitality management), Kathryn Marie Mysko (human nutrition), Stephanie Clarissa Sajuti (food science). We are quite proud of their accomplishments.

At the ACES awards banquet this spring, Bethany Six, senior in dietetics, won the Warren K. Wessels Achievement award. She was also serve on the Student Council for the Illinois Dietetics Association Illinois Dietetics Association.

Students were also recognized at the FSHN year end picnic held in the Bevier Café. The following students were recognized for their accomplishments within their major:

Outstanding Senior in Dietetics

Bethany Six

Outstanding Senior in Food Industry and Business

Amanda Coulombe

Outstanding Senior in Food Science

Stephanie Sajuti

Outstanding Senior in Hospitality Management

Allen Tran

Outstanding Senior in Human Nutrition

Outstanding Graduate Student

Martha Rojas

Students were also recognized for their leadership and research accomplishments at the picnic as well. Those recognized for these awards were:

Outstanding TA

Lauren Hong

Undergraduate Leadership

Leslie Selcke

Undergraduate Research

Joey Kreger

In addition to all of the student accomplishments since we last met, the Spice Box dining renovation has begun and the department hopes to have these renovations completed in time for the fall semester. The Spice Box renovations, along with a number of other renovations slated for the next two years, were made possible through a generous gift from Phillip and Juanita Francis.
