

Estimated Expenses for Didactic Program in Dietetics (DPD) Students at the University of Illinois

<http://www.registrar.illinois.edu/tuition-fees>

This information is subject to change without notice.

Estimated Cost of Attendance for Academic Year 2022-2023:
	Illinois Resident	Nonresident	International
Tuition	$15,060	$33,032	$33,940
Campus Fees	$4,664	$4,664	$4,664
Room/Board	$12,720	$12,720	$12,720
Books/Supplies	$1,200	$1,200	$1,200
Other	$2,500	$2,840	$2,840
Total	$36,144	$54,456	$55,364
The following costs are unique to the DPD Program:
Lab Coat	Students are required to wear and maintain a clean, professional lab coat and chef hat for laboratory classes.		$45
iClicker Remote	Students are required to purchase a iClicker Remote for required courses. The iClicker remote system is used for classroom interaction and student engagement.		$50
Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Student Membership	Students are strongly encouraged to join the Academy early in their curriculum. Student membership includes free access to educational and training materials, reduced registration fees for professional meetings, and the monthly professional journal. Student membership is required for scholarships sponsored by the Academy and its affiliates.		$58.00 per year for student membership (6 year maximum allowed)
Study Abroad	http://www.studyabroad.illinois.edu/		Varies by program
D&D Digital Registration Fee	Dietetic internships select applicants through a computer matching process that is administered by D&D Digital. There are two matching periods per year (April and November).		$55.00 per each matching period
Dietetic Internship/Supervised Practice Program Application Fees	Some supervised practice programs charge additional fees when an application is submitted. The program application fee is in addition to the DICAS fee.		Variable
Graduate Record Exam (GRE)	Although the DPD Program and many dietetic internships do not require the GRE, seniors are encouraged to take the GRE to expand their choices of supervised practice program opportunities.		$205